

Remington Heights Homeowners' Association
Annual Homeowner's Meeting

Place: Clay Madsen Recreation Center

Date: April 6, 2010

Time: 7:05 pm

Attendance: Ednoa Harrell, Katrena Plummer, Marilyn Childress, Remington Heights Homeowners and Residents

Meeting was called to order by board member Katrena Plummer. Marilyn Childress informed the group that a forum had been established with mail-in proxies.

A motion was made by Mark Salmon and seconded by Mike Olson to approve the meeting minutes of 03-31-09.

Marilyn Childress review the financials; then opened the forum for discussion. David Biggs had questions about the financials not being sent to him upon request. An explanation was given by Marilyn Childress.

It was announced there is a board member position open and the group was given the opportunity to nominate someone or someone could volunteer. Sunnie Cambell nominated Julia Cordero and gave a brief introduction. Mike Olson volunteered to serve on the board. After a vote Mike Olson was elected to fill the position.

It was discussed that volunteers are needed. Chelsea Sopick volunteered to take over the newsletter, not so much with writing, but she's a graphic designer. No one volunteered to write an article for the first newsletter. Volunteers will be solicited by board members.

The board asked for two more volunteers for the architecture review committee. Mike Spaulding and David Biggs volunteered making the committee consist of (4) members with Frank Campbell acting as chairman.

Homeowners Lisa Jahnke and Jeff Davis volunteered to host neighbors on their streets for the 2010 National Night Out. Dates were discussed. Ednoa will contact the RRPD for actual dates.

Jessica Fuller made the motion to adjourn and Pauline Hudson seconded the motion.

Meeting was adjourned at 8:30 pm
